Guelph Gay Equality

Dear Friends,

Enclosed with this newsletter you will find copies of three letters which we hope you will sign and send to Queen's Park.

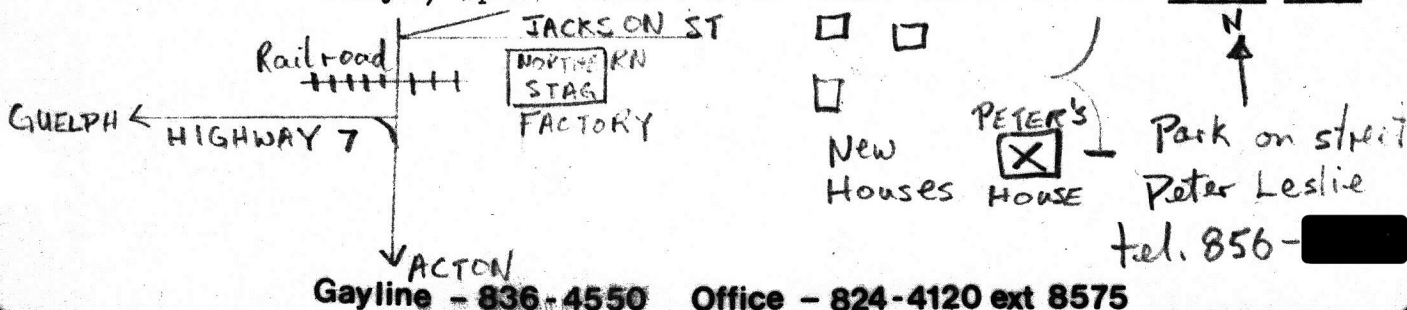

A number of fundamentalist churches in the province have mounted a letter-writing campaign to Ontario legislators to fight the inclusion of 'sexual orientation' in the Human Rights Code. To date their letters far outnumber our own.

Although letters don't make the major difference in a political struggle, they do serve as an indicator to politicians as to the concerns of citizens. Because the bill to amend the Human Rights Code will be introduced very soon, it is important that there be public support for gay rights.

If you feel that the enclosed letters don't speak for you, don't hesitate to write your own words. Urge your friends to do so as well. Your letters don't have to state your sexual preference, nor will they risk the privacy of your life. They could make a great difference to your future!
