NEWSLETTER - JUNE 1978

MONEY - We Still Need Yours!

Last month we sent out a plea for donations since we aren't charging for memberships anymore. So far the response has been poor - and that means we're getting poorer. Perhaps it would help if you knew what happens to your donations. Here are a few examples:

Newsletter - $20 per month, $240/year
Gayline - $85 per month, $1020/year
Library - $300/year

Donations to Defence
Funds (eg. John Damien) $300/year

Memberships in provincial and federal gay coalitions $75/year

If you can help us out, please do. Make cheques or money orders payable to G.G.E., and send to our box number. We extend our thanks to those who've already donated!

MONOGAMY

On May 17, Earl and Rene shared their experiences with a long-term monogamous relationship. They touched on several areas of interest to all of us:

- finances - joint bank accounts, partnerships, mortgages, wills.
- doctors - choosing one who knows you are gay, respects your relationship, and treats you as a couple.
- straight neighbours and relatives

WELCOME, G.R.O.W.

The Gay Rights Organization of Waterloo held its first meeting on May 18. It will serve the KW area. If you want more info or their newsletter, write GROW, Box 2632, Stn B, Kitchener, Ontario. N2H 6N2.
