NEWSLETTER FOR SEPTEMBER 1978

ANITA BRYANT will be in London, Ontario on Sunday, September 10. A number of people in London have formed CAB (Coalition to answer Anita Bryant) Guelph should support their efforts. Anyone wishing to participate may call Peg at 822-XXXX.

APHRODITE'S ALTERNATIVE is run by Transvestities in Toronto. Contact them at Box 873, Toronto, M5W 1G3.

Frank Maine, MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT, seems to think that the proposed constitution will give adequate protection to gays and lesbians even though it does not forbid discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation. When he returns from Europe on August 25th let him know how you feel about it !

The participation of full-time and part-time STUDENTS AND FACULTY of the U. of G. is an essential part of our organization's function. With a new semester at hand we make a special invitation to members of the university community who are interested in furthering equal human rights for lesbians and gays to attend our meetings in the lounge of the ninth floor of the Arts building, each Wednesday at 8:00 pm.
