Have you ever checked out the G.G.E. library? We have fiction and non-fiction books relating to gay women and men. We also have an excellent collection of newspaper cuttings, other group information etc. in our files. If you need info. on health needs, we have pamphlets and information on that as well. We will soon have a new bookcase where the information will be stored more effectively.

Come to the office on the 5th floor of the university centre to check it out.
