4: Maintain some level of decorum. Once your friend has called dibs, it is only a matter of decency and courtesy not to try and go after that person.

5: Accept defeat gracefully. An unfortunate reality is that dibbing a person does not mean success in achieving them. Others unknown to you may be hunting the same person, or (Gasp! say this is not possible!) the dibbee may not find you attractive. If the dibbee happens to decide on one of your friends and they have not done anything to encourage this absurd possibility, then you must accept this as an unfortunate aspect of life. So swallow your pride, it'll probably be the only thing you will be that night.

Remember play safe. It's a meat market out there, so try and pick only Grade A.
