Welcome back to tri-Pride!

Welcome everyone, to tri-Pride 2008 - "Growing Stronger Together".

This guide is packed with information about this year's Pride celebration and details of the exciting events we have planned for the week leading up to our June 1 *tri-*Pride Festival in Victoria Park.

This year's outdoor festival celebration promises to be an excellent day of fun and entertainment for the entire family, with a diverse line-up of acts performing throughout the day. From crowd-pleasing performances from the big city to a show-case of our favorite local LGBTQ indie talent, our guest performers cover a vast array of enjoyable experiences, featuring KELLY & THE KELLY-GIRLS, CHARLENA RUSSELL, S&M, KATE & MOXY, THE OTE'A TANE DANCERS and of course, MISS DREW.

If you are interesting in helping out with *tri-*Pride, please fell free to contact us at info@tri-pride.ca for more information about volunteers.

Come on out and celebrate LGBTQ and community diversity with us!

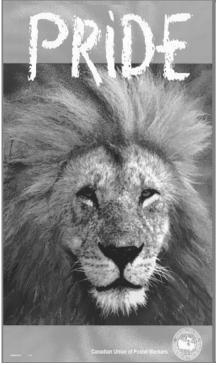

We look forward to seeing you at Roos Island, Victoria Park, Kitchener, on June 1, 2008!

THE BEST FUNERAL IS ONE THAT REFLECTS YOUR WISHES.

We are dedicated to the families we serve, in the community we all live in.

Dignity is Pride.

Pride in a life lived and a love shared.

Whether it happens next month or 25 years from now, the people you love may be facing important decisions about a major life event without your input. By dealing with it now, you can make your wishes known and save them from unnecessary guesswork.

Call to arrange a personal visit of our homes, to meet our staff And to discuss the benefits of planning a funeral or cremation service in advance.

Service Beyond Expectation

Kelly & The Kellygirls Type of Label: Indie

HIGH-ENERGY, ska-tinged swinging showstoppers could be fairly used to describe the sound of Kelly and the Kellygirls. The seven-piece Toronto-based Canadian group encompasses many different sounds but are usually found playing swing venues in Toronto.

A sexy spectacle of glam, swing, ska, and theatrics. Kelly Clipperton, lead singer and founder of the Kellygirls, lights up the stage with a great energy; and his raucous but soft pitched voice contrasts with the bouncy band which includes a horn section.

www.kellyclipperton.com www.myspace.com/kellyandthekellygirls

S&M

Type of Label: Indie

"We're bringing music back." So say Sarah Casselman and Mary Fyvie on the impetus to create S & M, an entertaining and multitalented cover duo, who are working hard to make sure the classics, both old and new, are alive and well.

Their repertoire boasts hundreds of hit songs, selected from the past six decades, covering all genres of music- pop, rock, alternative, Motown, folk, R & B, blues, county- you name it, S & M leave no sonic stone unturned.

S & M turn heads with their electrifying showmanship, diverse set lists, and professional performances. Both women share lead vocals and are experts with harmonies.

Charlena Russell

Type of Label: Indie

A powerhouse vocalist and adept multi-instrumentalist, Charlena Russell uses her musical training to create fiery, soulful blues-rock and haunting, personal electronica.

Famed for her do-it-yourself ethic, she is constantly involved in community projects and has been performing and promoting shows for the last six years. Charlena uses her music to address various social, spiritual and political issues she feels need attention.

www.charlenarussell.com www.myspace.com/charlenarussell

Kate & Moxy
Type of Label: Indie

Singer, songwriter Kate Channer, and drummer Monica "Moxy" Miatello (formerly of the Strap-Ons), come together to create musical entertainment lying in the genres between Melissa Etheridge and White Stripes. Newly formed, but already having a repertoire of over 35 songs including both covers and originals, Kate & Moxy are ready for any type of stage from large to small, and intimate to concert settings.

Audiences enjoy singing along with Kate's uniquely powerful vocal renderings while dancing to her melodic guitar styling, all driven by Moxy's solid foundation of drum grooves.

Ote'a Tane (oteh-ah tah-neh)

Literally means a group dance that is performed with unity (ote'a) by men (tane). In unity, Ote'a Tane seeks to preserve and illustrate the beautiful culture of Tahiti and Hawaii that is rarely experienced here in Canada through dance.

Organized as a not for profit troupe of male dancers specializing in performing the Tahitian ori and the Hawaiian hula in the ancient style makes Ote'a Tane very rare even in Polynesia.

Ote'a Tane is an all male Polynesian group, specializing in the Tahitian ote'a and hula kahiko (ancient hula).

Miss Drew
Once a novice...NOW A QUEEN.

Miss Drew A.K.A. Bradley has been showing the fans of Kitchener that he is more than just "a boy in a dress."

Trying to capture his dreams, Miss Drew is the founder and cast member of the infamous show "All that Glitters is Gold" each Thursday at Club Renaissance.

With his own sense of style and creativity, Miss Drew has given some of drag's most magical moments on and off stage.

A grand thank-you to Miss Drew as he MC's the tri-Pride stage show for 2008.

A History of tri-Pride

1995 With such limited time for publicizing the event, it was astonishing that 86 people showed up to the first Pride event.

1996 The second Regional Pride Celebration, "Triangle Unity '96", was attended by 221 people.

1997 A significant step forward over the previous year's celebration, there were several dozen sponsors.

1998 Pride Celebrations moved outdoors - Pride's "Out-'98" was held in Kitchener's Victoria Park by the clock tower.

1999 "Rock the Island! Celebrate Diversity" moved Pride onto Roos Island, and was attended by over 500 people.

2000 Once again Pride was held on Roos Island with great success.

2001 "Imagine: Be A Dreamer" featured a beer garden, BBQ, music, various entertainers and lots of information tables.

2002 "There's No Place Like Home!" boasted an art show, community dance, workshops and outdoor festival on Roos Island with about 2,000 people; Pride incorporated in March to become tri-Pride Community Association Inc.

2003 "Tribes" was headlined by Canadian music icon and legend, Carole Pope, and also hosted a display and closing ceremonies of The Canadian AIDS Memorial Quilt.

2004 "Evolution: a brand new universe", recognized new-found gay and lesbian rights with the legalization of gay marriage. New events for Pride Week included a bowling tournament, LESBO Bingo, and added a kids area.

2005 "Decades" celebrated our 10th anniversary With over 3,000 people in attendance and a stellar stage line-up headlined by Ashley MacIsaac.

2006 "Wave of Acceptance" hosted a Silent Auction, BBQ, Vendors Garden and Beer Garden. The line-up included Ember Swift, Dr Draw, Stutter, Charlena Russell, Mary5e, Greg Upshaw and WombBoom!
